Full Dress.

Especially at this season is the Evening Sult an indispensable adjunct to a man's wardrobe. If you attend the holiday entertainments and New Year receptions you'll need correct attire.

There are Evening Suits here out in both Swallow-tailand Tux-edo, and the Prince Alberts and Cutaways for afternoon wear, all ready for immediate delivery.

There is no skimping in the making or finishing. The cloth, the ilining, the trimming everything is right up to the highest standard set by any tailor. The difference is in the price, and that s in your favor, too.

LABOR HOSTILE TO PAXSON

Senator Cullom Admits Receiving Many Protests.

AWARE OF THE OPPOSITION

Argunent to Be Used Against the Pennsylvania Aspirant for the Interstate Commerce Commission Place Is That He Is a Corporation Man-Labor's Grievance.

Senator Collom, of Illinois, chair n in of the Committee on Interstate Commerce, deples that he has said that he would oppose the nomination of Judge Edward M. Paxson, of Pennsylvania, to be Interstate conmerce commissioner to succeed Judge Morrison, but he does admit that a great opposition to the prospective nominee has sprung up and that it will develop on the floor of the Senate.

Senators Cullem and Mason make m secret of the fact that they are disappointed over the promise of the place to Parson They have both indorsed Judge Littler. of their own State, for the place, and have been orging the President to nake the appointment.

Senator Cullom said yesterday that he had been receiving a great many letters from labor organizations profesting against the appointment, all of which will, in due time, be laid before the committee of which the Senator is chairman, and which will have the nomination, when it is made, referred to it. Railroad organized labor will make a determined fight against Paxson, and railroad men have a grievance against him that will make itself felt in the Senate.

Almost the first thing Judge Paxson did after he resigned from the bench to accept the receivership of the Reading Rail road was to issue an order discharging every employe who belonged to any of the railroad unions. This has been brought to the attention of the President. If it avails not there, then it will be used be fore the Senate committee and in the

The very appointment of Judge Paxson will be a violation of the spirit if not the intention of the law. It was not the intention of these who framed the law nected with railroads or owning stock or bonds of such a concern, should become a member of this commission. Of course, by resigning his office and seiling his stock if he has any, Judge Paxson might become eligible, but the spirit of the law would be violated all the same.

Judge Paxson is a corporation man of the most pronounced sort. His sympathics have always been in that direction, and if he becomes a member of this court it is claimed the railroads will be in possession of the commission, and the rights of the people and patrons of railroads will be left in the lurch. As receiver of the Realing road Judge Paxson has done and sought to do many things held to be in violation of law, and which have been denounced by the commission, upon which it is the intention of the President to , ut him. Among the most notorious of these acts is his connection with the famous trank line pool which the commission natimously declared was a violation of Senator Cullon was at the White House yesterday, and it was inferred that he went to see the President about the Interstate Commerce Commission place. It is said there was a warm detate, during which the President and that if Senate Colion would submit any vital reasons why the appointment should not be made he would consider them. Senator Cullom said that one vital reason was that he did not want Payson. He thought the appointment should no to the West, Illinois preferred, as Col. Morrison, whom Judge  $P_{\rm SX}$  son is proposed to succeed is from Blinois The President from last accounts is ponder ing over what Senator Callom said.
